

World War II Evacuee Experience

Woodcocks' Well CE Primary School & Congleton Museum are working together to provide a truly memorable visit, packed with quality learning opportunities for all primary school children. This is a split site visit offering complementary experiences, which can be modified to suit your requirements.

At Woodcocks' Well, children can experience life as a child evacuee during World War II through:

- Luggage labels and Identity Cards
- Rationing and handling old money and artefacts
- Gas mask drill
- Air Raid and Anderson Shelter
- Songs of the time
- Wartime Lunches (Available on request at £2.10 per head)

At Congleton Museum, children can experience life as a child in London during World War II through:

- Questioning a veteran with first hand experience
- Handling scale models of bombs and air raid shelters
- Handling artefacts
- Participation in a foot drill

Cost £6.00 per pupil

'It is a quality experience for pupils and staff and we thoroughly enjoyed ourselves'
M A Brady, Nether Alderley Primary School, November 2010

'Now I know how it feels to be an evacuee'
'It was a day I will never forget! Thanks again for a really enjoyable day!'
pupils from Willaston Primary School, November 2010

To find out more, please contact Karen Stratford – Congleton Museum

Tel: 07551 401 988 or

Email: kstratford55@gmail.com